6. INFORMATION CONCERNING THE APPLICATION FOR REVIEW

Right to review

The terms for requesting a review are set out in section 93 of Act Respecting Labour Relations, Vocational Training and Workforce Management in the Construction Industry (c. R-20):

93. A person who believes he has been wronged by a decision of the Commission regarding the person's eligibility to a social benefits plan or the amount of a benefit may, within 60 days of receiving the decision, apply to the Commission for a review.

The Commission shall render its review decision within 60 days following the application. The review decision may be contested before the Tribunal administratif du travail within 60 days after being received; the Tribunal's decision is final.

Failing an initial decision regarding the person's eligibility or the amount of a benefit, or a review decision within 90 days of the application, the person concerned may apply to the Tribunal administratif du travail within 60 days of the prescribed time.

Reasons for submitting an application for review

You can request a review of a decision by the Commission related to one of the following points:

- Your eligibility for the social benefits plan, including the pension plan
- The amount of a benefit payable under this plan or under one or another coverage

Deadline for submitting an application for review

Your application for review must be submitted to the Commission within 60 days from the date on which you received the decision for which you are requesting the review.

Procedure for submitting an application for review

- 1) Fill out sections 1 to 4 of the present application for review.
- 2) In section 3, give the reasons for which you are requesting the review of this decision. You may attach a letter if the space provided is insufficient.
- 3) Attach any document justifying your request for review. It is not necessary to provide documents already produced in your file.
- 4) If applicable, confirm the mandate of representation in section 5.

Steps in the application for review

First, you will receive an acknowledgment of receipt of your application for review. Then, the Bureau de réexamen de décisions — Avantages sociaux will contact you or your representative (if applicable) to begin the review of the decision concerned. When the review is completed, a written decision will be sent to you.

Possibility of recourse with the Tribunal administratif du travail

If you disagree with this decision resulting from the review, you will have 60 days from receipt of the decision to contest it with the Tribunal administratif du travail.
