5. DECLARATION

I declare that all information given in the present form is accurate.

I understand that making a false declaration, falsification of a document, or use of any falsified document to obtain a competency certificate, an exemption from holding a competency certificate, a registration certificate, or a measure to benefit diversity of the workforce constitutes an infraction that may lead to its cancellation as well as criminal prosecution under section 119.1 or 122 (4) of Act respecting labour relations, vocational training and workforce management in the construction industry (CQLR, chap. 20). The present declaration or a copy of it will be valid as long as analysis of my application lasts or as long as I hold a valid competency certificate, exemption, or registration certificate issued or renewed by the CCQ.

8. DEFINITIONS AND TERMS OF APPLICATION

A woman who holds a competency certificate or an exemption benefits from all the workforce diversity measures. Similarly, all people registered with the CCQ as representative of diversity benefit from all the associated measures. When a person benefits from measures for women or diversity measures, his or her employer also benefits from the corresponding applicable advantages.

For more information, visit www.ccq.org/inclusion.

An individual may belong to several groups representative of diversity. However, an immigrant may not identify himself or herself as a member of another group without having first identified himself or herself as such, and a person who is Indigenous may not identify at the same time as a member of a visible or ethnic minority. Moreover, a person cannot be both a visible minority and an ethnic minority.

In all cases, a person whose status representative of diversity changes must notify the CCQ immediately.

Indigenous	An Indigenous person is a person who belongs to one of these groups: First Nations, Métis of Canada, Inuit with Indian status with the Canadian government, or whose status of Cree, Naskapi, or Inuit beneficiary has been recognized pursuant to the Act respecting Cree, Inuit and Naskapi Native persons (chapter A-33.1). For self-identification, one of the following supporting documents is required: photocopy, two-sided of Indian Status certificate or Nunavik Inuit Beneficiary Card.
Immigrant	The person is a permanent resident or a foreign national. He or she is not a Canadian citizen. An immigrant may not identify himself or herself as a member of another group without first identifying himself or herself as an immigrant. For self-identification, one of the following valid supporting documents is required: photocopy of work permit, photocopy of the study permit specifically authorizing the foreign student to accept a job, permanent resident card, or confirmation of permanent residency.
Visible minority	The person belongs to a visible minority because of the colour of his or her skin; he or she is not of the white race or colour. This does not include people who are Indigenous or belong to an ethnic minority. An immigrant may not identify himself or herself as a member of another group without first identifying himself or herself as an immigrant.
Ethnic minority	The person belongs to an ethnic minority when his or her first language is neither French nor English. This does not include Indigenous people or those belonging to a visible minority. An immigrant may not identify himself or herself as a member of another group without first identifying himself or herself as an immigrant.
With disabilities	The person is considered to have disabilities when he or she has an impairment resulting in a significant and persistent incapacity and is likely to encounter obstacles in performance of everyday activities. An immigrant may not identify himself or herself as a member of another group without first identifying himself or herself as an immigrant.
